MOUNT PLEASANT. Old Folks Made Happy - Annual Rabbit Hunt.

Special Correspondence. Mt. Pleasant, Sanpete Co., Utah, Feb. 6.—Yesterday was "Old Folk's Day," and will be remembered as one of the pleasantest occasions of the year; all over 50 years of age were royally en-tertained and feasted in the Union Pavilion, where the festivities began shortly after noon, about 600 people sat down at the tables and enjoyed the delicious repast prepared. After dinner a very interesting pro-gram was rendered. There were pres-ent 150 over 50 years of age, 30 of whom were over 80 years old. After the pro-gram the hall was cleared and the old folks enjoyed themselves in the dance until about midnight.

SLAUGHTER OF RABBITS.

The annual rabbit hunt occurred here yesterday in the hills near town. Eleven men were chosen on each side, with L. F. Waldemar and J. C. Barton captains. The sport began at 12:30 and ended at 5 p. m., and the crack of firearms could be plainly heard in town all the afternoon. Waldemar's side won, about 600 bunnies were killed

Big Snow Storm Insures Bounteous Crops Next Season.

Special Correspondence. Holden, Millard Co., Feb. 3.-February is the month down in this part that promises the farmers hope for the season of 1901. It is snowing, snowing, snowing. I went to the mountain on last Monday and the snow there was about three feet deep, and from present indications should this white layer continue, there will be water for crops. What February gains in snew March will pile up in the canyons, and north hill sides.

NOT THE MAN WANTED. Sheriff Zimmerman of Snohomish county, Washington, arrived here last evening to get the man held here sup-posed to be the much wanted Washingon outlaw, Henry Ferguson. It did not take the sheriff long to come to the conclusion that the man confined here was not Ferguson. The sheriff goes back empty handed this morning and the captive will be liberated. Sister Helena Christiansen, mother of Michael Nielsen of this place, died yes-Michael Nielsen of this place, died yes-terday, Deceased was a native of Nor-way and was 84 years old. She joined the Church about 30 years ago and emi-grated to Utah in 1880. She leaves three children to survive her in this country and two in Norway. The funeral will be held this morning.

WEST PORTAGE.

The Old Folks Are Feasted and Entertained.

Special Correspondence. West Portage, Boxelder Co., Feb. 3.— The good citizens of Portage under the direction of the Bishopric entertained the old people of the ward in royal style on Friday, Feb. 1. The meeting house was very tastefully decorated for the occasion, with pictures of the dead and of the living, and everything was made comfortable for the veterans under the able management of the old people's committee. The exercises commenced at 11 o'clock a. m. The evercises commenced sisted of an address of welcome from the Bishop, songs, short speeches, recl-tations, and music by the brass band, followed by a sumptuous dinner, after which, amal which a small purse was given to the oldest members of the pioneer band of twenty-six which first settled in Portage in 1867. Brother John Tims and Sister Parkinson took the prizes. The afternoon was given over to dancing and singing. The exercises closed at 6:30. In the evening a dance was given to the young folks, in which over seventy couples participated.

Those that where not able to be present on account of sickness were not for-gotten. A basket full of the most tempting viands was sent to each.

We have had very little snow; the roads are dry and dusty; outlook for water very poor. Our day and Sunday schools are in a flourishing condition. The general health of the people is good. We have no smallpox; the grip has attacked most of the people, but they are all convalescent with the exception of Levi John and John F. Conly, and they are improving.

Hebron, Washington County, Feb. 4 .-The little town of Hebron has been called to mourn the loss of a highly respected young lady during the last week. Miss Grace C. Hunt, daughter of Amos P. and Rhoda M. Hunt, 16 years of age, was called to a better world on Wednesday, January 30th. She was sick with pneumonia for eleven days.

There are three other cases in our little village. But all seem in our lit-little village. But all seem to be improving at present, The funeral services were held Thursday, January 31st. The parents and friends of of the de-ceased, and also of the sick ones, have the sympathy of the entire community.

Spread Like Wildfire. When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist, of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in 20 years. You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of mal-adies. It builds up the entire system; Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Price 50 cents. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

NEPHI.

Oppose Allison's Game Bill - Smallpox Case at Levan.

Special Correspondence.

Nephi, Juab County, Feb. 5 .- The sportsmen of this place are greatly ex-ercised over the bill lately introduced by Senator Allison relating to fish and game and steps are being taken to formulate a protest against its passage. The present law is unjust enough they claim, and was gotten through for the benefit of the Salt Lake Gun club, and now to make a bad matter worse by depriving the great majority of hunters of what few privileges they did have is going a little too far, so that when the bill comes up for discussion, its friends will find anything but a unanimous entire to favor of it. mous sentiment in favor of it.

SMALLPOX AT LEVAN.

Word was brought from Levan today that a case of smallpox has broken out there. Dr. Wilcox promptly investigated and found it true. A young man named Oscar Hall, came down from Salt Lake last Wednesday and was stopping at the home of County Commissioner Jos. Fremenn. He was taken sick, with what proved to be smallpox. Dr. Wilcox quarantined the family and others who had been exposed and he is of the opinion that the spread of the disease will be prevented.

COALVILLE.

Business in the District Court Summit County Affairs. Special Correspondence.

Coalville, Summit County, Feb. 6 .-The following business was transacted in the ditrict court before Judge Stewart today: Estate of Walter Wilcox; final account of executrix approved; order made distributing the whole of the estate to Hannah Wilcox and final discharge of executrix entered.

Estate and guardianship of William Saville: hearing on annual account of guardian set for March 18th. Estate of Joshua W. Neill; continued for the term by stipulation.
Estate of C. J. Paul; Minerva Paul appointed executrix under $300 bond.

J. C. Weeter et al vs William Ferrego; motion to quash execution denied State vs Charles Neili; continued for the term by agreement of counsel. The following jurors were excused for the term: Henry Welch, J. W. Geiger, George W. Groo, James Corrigan, Robert Widdison.

SUMMIT COUNTY AFFAIRS.

The board of county commissioners adjourned yesterday after a two days' meeting. The salary of the deputy county clerk was fixed at $61 per month. The deputy assessor will receive $40 and the deputy sheriff $30 per month. Austin Neel, of Oakley, through his attorney, Johnson and Fowler, pre-sented a bill for the modest little sum of $10,000. It will take that sum, so the claimant says, to compensate him for injuries received in falling off a bridge. The claim was referred to County Attorney Callis.
Road supervisors were appointed as follows: Park City, John Paradise; Snyderville, Richard Gill; Wanship, Ebenezer Young; Woodland, John Benson; Kamas, Wm. A. Williams; Marlon, Honry Lewis; Oakstellier, Parador, Par winams, Marion, Hearry Lewis, Oaks-ley, Wilford Frazier; Peoa, J. H. Judd; Echo, George Gilchrist; Coalville, Ira Eldredge; Hoytsville, Charles L. Rode-back; Castle Rock, Jos. S. Ball. Elder Seymour B. Young was the principal speaker at the quarterly con-ference which ended yesterday. His

discourses were encouraging and in-structive to the Saints, Bishop Atwood, of Kamas, offered the benediction in which he asked the Lord to deal with those who were absent as He saw fit

THATCHER, IDAHO. Old Folks Are Honored and Feasted

Sumptuously. Special Correspondence. Thatcher, Bannock Co., Idaho, Feb. 4.—The old folks were given their an-nual entertainment January 25. It was a grand success in every respect. The committee, George Anderson, Leo Peck and Sister Harriet Hogan, deserve a great deal of credit for their untiring great deal of credit for their untiring efforts to make everything go off so pleasantly. The house was neatly decorated for the occasion. The tables, reaching nearly the full length of the house, were laden with tempting viands. The program was interesting and suitable for the occasion. One of the most pleasing features being the presentation of the presents to Brother Hyrum Hoops and Sister Anna Falk. man, the oldest couple in the ward. While we listened to beautiful strains of music furnished by the orchestra, our young girls pined the badges of honor upon the aged guests. By request Elder C. R. Savage imparted interesting information on the origin of the old folks party, which was parted interesting information on the origin of the old folks party, which was much appreciated by all, Altogether it promptly furnished. Rush orders a was a very pleasing affair.

We have had considerable sickness in the ward, but all are improving. We have ben blessed, however, in having no smallpox thus far this winter.
